Estate Plan Design Information

Have you or your spouse completed estate planning documents previously?

If yes, please provide document copies.

Yes No

The first portion of the information needed to design your unique estate plan focuses on naming the persons who will act for you in the event of your disability or your death.

Guardians

If a child is under the age of 18 and if both parents should die, then the court will appoint a guardian of the person and a guardian of the property for that child. Often a single person or couple serves in both capacities. A parent may nominate those guardians in his will, and the court will give weight (but will not be bound) by that nomination.

If you have any children under the age of eighteen (18), list in order of preference whom you wish to be guardian (individuals or couples).

- DIVIDE IN AMOUNTS SPECIFIED BELOW TO NAMED INDIVIDUALS and/or CHARITIES (must total 100%):

HOW AND WHEN TO DISTRIBUTE MY PROPERTY:

- DISTRIBUTE OUTRIGHT TO MY BENEFICIARIES: Provides no protection from creditors, predators, or from themselves. However, beneficiary may be given the right to maintain the property in trust, which may give some protection from creditors and predators.
- STRUCTURED TRUST: You determine how long the property is to remain in trust. During the period of time that the property is held in trust, it is available to the beneficiary for needs (health, education, maintenance, and support). You may give written instructions to the trustee outlining guidelines to be followed in determining the beneficiary's needs. You may provide for a staggered distribution of principal, e.g., 1/3 at age 30, 1/3 at age 35, and the balance at age 40.

Please note that retention of property (i.e., principal/trust assets) in a "discretionary" trust can generally (a) leverage tax advantages by allowing property to descend to your descendants in a tax-efficient manner and (b) protect the retained principal and/or trust income from a beneficiary's creditors (e.g., a former spouse, a tort claimant injured by the beneficiary, or a business partner involved in a beneficiary's failed business venture).

You decide how the trust is designed. You also decide who should manage the property and carry out your distribution instructions.
